

Immeasurably More

"(v.20) Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, (v.21) to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen!"
Ephesians 3:20-21
New International Version

America's attitude today is filled with worry and trepidation.

We are fighting over limited options and resources.

We have lost our courage and strength.

Our vision is cloudy and self-centered.

We are discouraged.

But God isn't!

Ephesians 3:20

Paul is describing a realm of experience in which progress is limitless.

It is limitless in faith,

in forgiveness,

in freedom,

in joy,

in service to others

Daniel 3:15-17

God is able to rescue us from the flames

Daniel 6:20-23 God is able to rescue us from the lions.

The gospel offers a vision of progress throughout all ages without ceasing.

He is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us.

Where would you invite Jesus to go to work within you with his immeasurably more?

- To heal your lingering medical condition?
- To take away your deep anger over a deteriorating marriage or difficult parents?
- To forgive you?
- To motivate you to enjoy His great love?
- To serve your family with grace?
- To get out of the chair and learn your spouse's love language?
- To care enough to learn your children's love language?
- To forgive your family? A friend? A boss?
- To forgive spiritual leaders who have hurt or disappointed you?
- To give you a great job?
- To build a strong biblical financial system?
- To get in good physical shape?
- To serve your neighborhood?
- To trust Christ with your life?
- To re-do your life style?
- To tithe?
- To accept and love yourself?
- To not be jealous?
- To deal with your pain—spiritual, emotional, physical?
- To learn to love?
- Learn to pray?

"Immeasurably More " means God will never run out of resources to help you nor the desire to love you!

"Immeasurably More" means God is at work within you right now by his inexhaustible power. Open up to him! Trust him! Thank Him!

Give Jesus control of your life right now!

A simple prayer of acceptance starts your spiritual life.

At that moment, "immeasurably more" begins to work in and through your life.
